++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy and mild.

Today:
Mist and fog slowly gives way to a rather cloudy day. Dry for many though some light rain or drizzle is possible, especially at first. One or two brighter breaks developing. Feeling very mild with a gentle breeze. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Largely dry overnight with any drizzle mainly confined to the high ground. A mixture of cloud and clear intervals. The risk of local fog and frost developing under the latter. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Wednesday:
Any fog again slowly clearing on Wednesday. A mostly dry day thereafter with brighter intervals developing to the north, but potentially staying cloudier further south. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Largely settled through the week, but on the cloudy side with limited bright spells in the afternoon and patchy drizzle at times. A risk of morning fog under cloud breaks.
